NORTHFIELD.

J. M. Bullock was home for a few days the first of the week.

W. F. Cushman returned to Boston Tuesday after spending a few days at his home on Central street.

The roof of the Mayo building is being covered over with a new layer of roofing.

The musical, consisting of both vocal and instrumental music was held in the vestry of the Methodist church last night, given by the ladies of the church. After the entertainment refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Blanche, the daughter of Kent Hodgden, had a fainting spell while reciting in one of the rooms of the Northfield high school yesterday, and was taken to her home and Dr Mayo called. She has not been well for some time and her weak condition is thought to be the cause of the fainting.

Rev. Walter Dole went to Boston Monday on a short business trip. He will return by the way of Enfield, N. H., where he will call on relatives arriving home the last of the week.

Mrs. Michael Murry left on the noon train Wednesday for Boston where she will reside in the future.

Work on the quarry of the Vt. Black Slate Co., at South Northfield has begun on a larger scale than ever before. There is in process of construction newly equipped steam plant, large enough to work both quarries to their fullest capacity. The buildings to be all situated with steam so that the property can be worked during all seasons of the year. The machinery to be installed will be delivered during the next five weeks, and is up to date and of the largest type used in the slate business. There is now being installed two 25-ton derricks.

Mrs. H. L. Cheney has rented one of the stores of the new Mayo building and opens a novelty store. The store was thrown open to the patronage of the public for the first time at one o'clock this afternoon.

Mrs. Fred Greene, who has been ill for the last three weeks, is much improved and able to be out again.

Capt. Harold M. Howe of Co. F, V. N. G., has been selected as one of the range officers in the Massachusetts Rifle competition.

The Randolph high school defeated the Northfield high school yesterday afternoon by a score of 2 to 1 in a fine exhibition of base ball. During the entire game there were only two errors made, which were by the home team in the eighth inning and gave the visitors two runs and the game. Up to the eighth the score was 1 to 0 in favor of the home team.

P. D. Pike is in receipt of a letter from Chas. A. Milliken, the newly elected vice-president of the Vt. Black Slate Co., that he has recently located in Island Falls, Me., by fire. The mill was one of the largest employing over 75 men, and valued at $50,000 with no insurance.

The base ball trip which was to have been made by the Northfield team to New York last week through Northern New York has been abandoned. They were to have left on Tuesday but had to postpone it a day later on account of the inspection which was held yesterday. They have also received word that the St. Lawrence team with whom they were to play has been disbanded.

Dr. Edwin Porter has returned from California where he has been spending the winter months.

GOOD PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL.

As It Is Played in Great Britain According to London Truth.

sity boat race among all classes is the highest testimony to the purity of amateur sport so is the keen enthusiasm that is taken in the final competition for the Football Association Cup exceeding good evidence of the genuineness of the professional player. The paid player has a good deal of abuse hurled at him. It is said that he is no sportsman, that he makes not only money but his livelihood out of the game, and that he sells himself to the highest bidder. Writers who think imperially and play football not at all denounce him and all his works as being the cause of the decadence of our native physique, and the immediate ruin of our national trade. Young men, we are told, pay him to play for them instead of playing them selves. They take more interest in playing than in business. If they really understood things, instead of giving themselves up to football, the decade of Toryism would never have occurred. Mr. Bullock never made a greater mistake than in going to the country during the football season. The proletariat were capable of considering only football and they have no time for politics. Naturally men who pay people to play football for them respect their representatives to be paid for playing the game at St. Stephen's!

Each year twenty-two of these wretched hirelings come up to play in the final at the Crystal Palace for a little silver cup. And so utterly lost are they to all sense of decency and sportsmanship that they rarely produce their true form during the game. No one is ever heard to say that a player has been bought or that he has sold his side. The thousands who watch the game year after year have absolute confidence in the honesty and integrity of these players. Association football is the only sport in which professional players are exclusively engaged that has not gone to the wall, either owing to games and results being faked, or owing to the men losing control of themselves. Professional rowing, sculling, boxing, and running have all gone under. But professional football, at all events in the cup tie, is above suspicion. The fact that the players lost their form shows that there is a genuine anxiety to win which would be utterly foreign to men who were not playing a straight game. Their joy when a goal is scored is not the joy that is felt by a talented money. They are as keenly happy as the winning team in a university match. Whatever may be the result of any cup tie final game is an annual testimony to the standard of high sportsmanship that prevails among the players themselves.

The final this year was played between Newcastle United and Everton. The Tynesiders were in the final last year when Aston Villa beat them, while this was the third time that the Everton club had reached the same stage. Newcastle were the favorites. They had what the football press describes as a scientific team. More important, there was only one man playing who had not played in the final last year. Unfortunately for their supporters, experience does not always do it, and they soon

A Bad Back Is Always Worse During Wet or Changeable Weather.

Is your back like a barometer?

Does it forecast every change of weather?

Does every cold settle on your kidneys?

Bring aching, throbbing pains?

Does it disorder the urine?

The kidneys are calling for help.

Use Doan's Kidney Pills.

Guaranteed by Barre testimony.

Mrs. Margaret Reid of 40 Maple avenue, Barre, Vt., says: "For more than three years I was bothered off and on with a severe backache. At night I would suffer so that I could not sleep and arose mornings feeling tired and unrefreshed. During damp weather I was always worse and although I wore plasters I obtained only temporary relief. Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me and I went to E. A. Brown's drug store for a box. They seemed to help me after I had taken only a few doses. I continued using the remedy until the pains in my back were relieved and I could rest better nights. My health was benefited in other ways, and I am glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills whenever occasion arises."

showed that their usual combination was upset by the importance of the occasion. Their opponents played a rushing game that quite put them off. In the second half Newcastle were on the attack for some time with the wind behind them. The Everton backs were very safe. It was less than a quarter of an hour from the finish when Shury put in a splendid run and, with a pass to Young, the only goal of the match was scored, and Everton were, for the first time, winners of the cup. The official return of the number of spectators was 75,000. From the North and Midlands 115 special trains were run. That is to say, in and out, there were 230 trains more than usual to be arranged for this is a good instance of the admirable way in which the Northern lines manage their traffic.—London Truth.

The Mystery Lady.

[Extracts from the Woodville Daily Bugle.]

Monday—A very stylish looking lady got off the noon train today. She is a stranger to Woodville. Eliza Boggs, the genial station master, says that he never saw her before.

Tuesday—Mrs. Lavina Jones is the name of the stranger who came to town yesterday. She is stopping at the Hayes house, and since her arrival Miss Host Umbreitter has had his office filled with the younger set of men about town.

Wednesday—Mrs. Lavina Jones, when questioned today as to her reasons for visiting Woodville, stated that she did not feel free to make mention of them. It is rumored that she is here in connection with a certain estate that has been in litigation for some years.

Thursday

Saturday—Make Sunday happy by taking home from the Roger Emporium one of those packages of Chee-Rup Breakfast Food, whose virtues were recently demonstrated at our store by Mrs. Lavina Jones.—Adv.—Puck.
